

View this email in your browser

Local getawaysTM

SAN FRANCISCO RESTAURANTS THAT WEATHERED THE PANDEMIC

After fifteen downright bleak months of boarded-up windows, or spending money they didn't have on building parklets and buying propane heaters, or trying to keep the lights on by making comfort food with a skeleton crew, these beloved local restaurants are thankfully able to seat guests inside once again. Read San Francisco restaurant insider Marcia Gagliardi of tablehopper's take on the SF dining scene.

LET'S GO >

5 THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE VISITING THE IMMERSIVE VAN GOGH EXHIBIT IN SAN FRANCISCO

So you've heard about the exhibit — who hasn't. It's showing all over the country and has opened in the Bay Area. Now in San Francisco, the exhibit can be experienced until September 6. Before you go, here are 5 things to help you make the most of your visit.

LET'S GOGH >

BEST SUSHI ON THE BIG ISLAND

Fresh fish inspires thoughts of sashimi, tempura and sushi, and the restaurant scene on the Big Island is heavily influenced by Japanese cuisine, so at least one meal of your Hawaiian vacation should feature sushi.

LET'S GO >

BEST FAMILY HOTELS IN MAUI

Beachfront locations, great pools and educational cultural activities for kids — these hotels are ideal for family vacations on Maui.

LET'S GO >

VIRTUAL WATER COOLER: THE MEMES THAT GOT US THROUGH THE PANDEMIC

The pandemic was a difficult time for everyone. Was it six months? A year? As we toss our masks and re-enter the world, we've collected our favorite pandemic-themed memes. From describing all-too-accurately the situation to just making us laugh, these got us through the long months of great unknown.

LET'S GO >

SF'S ICONIC EXPLORATORIUM REOPENS 7/1!

[Partner]

The Exploratorium is more than a museum — it's a gateway to exploring science, art, and human perception. Visit us at Pier 15 in San Francisco.

UNCOVER

Invite Your Friends to Join Us

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

Copyright © 2021 Local Getaways, All rights reserved.